Communities That Care (CTC) is a risk-focused approach to reducing adolescent problem behaviors through community mobilization and planning. Local citizens and community leaders work together to identify the risk factors that increase the likelihood of problem behaviors developing, and enhance the protective factors that can shield youngsters from problems. The risk and protective factors are used to implement a comprehensive plan to step ahead of the problems with far-reaching and long-lasting solutions.

WHAT IS BACK TALK?

A CTC/PAL sponsored youth group focused on the fight against drugs and violence in the Norristown area community.

WHO CAN BE A MEMBER?

Norristown area youth who are in 8th grade or above.

WHEN DO WE MEET?

Every other Tuesday at Norristown Police Athletic League (PAL).

GOALS OF BACK TALK:

- Engage in positive alternatives to drug use and violence
- Participate in activities geared toward reducing drug use and violence in the Norristown area community
- Promote family involvement in community activities by helping with Family Nights at PAL
- Spread the word about CTC/Back Talk to other students by creating anti-drug and violence messages such as videos, posters, etc.

HOW DO WE MEET OUR GOALS?

- Meet as a group to discuss issues and how to help reduce them
- Participate in PAL sponsored events
- Complete community service hours and recruit new members
- Spread the word about the negative aspects of drugs and violence
- Create and participate in marketing ideas to publicize the Norristown area community

ACTIVITIES BACK TALK HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN:

- Family nights at PAL center (i.e. Bingo, Science Night)
- Anti-drug posters
- DUI simulator at NAHS
- Summer youth programs at PAL center
- Martin Luther King “Building Bridges, Breaking Barriers” recognition day at Plymouth Meeting Mall
- Empty Bowls Project
